

Anna Marie Willadsen

Services for Anna Marie Willadsen, 89, who died at her home near Wheatland April 11, 1989, were held Friday, April 14, 1989, at 1:30 p.m. in the Platte Funeral Chapel with Judy Wilson, Reader.

Born Aug. 22, 1899, in Blue Springs, Neb., she was the daughter of Jesse and Ellen (Bilger) Gensel. She was educated in Nebraska and taught school there for a time. She came to Wyoming and taught in 1919.

On Sept. 15, 1920, she and Steven Willadsen were married in Omaha. They ranched Granite Canyon until 1947. During World War II she taught school west of Cheyenne.

In 1947 they started ranching their present place. Mr. Willadsen died in 1973 and she remained at the ranch after his death. She was an avid gardener and enjoyed

Inc.