

Eloise Jane Williams

4-1-1992
Funeral services for Eloise Jane Williams, 66, were held Monday, April 6, 1992, at 10 a.m., at the United Church of Christ in Wheatland, with the Rev. Dr. James S. Vuocolo officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Williams died Wednesday, April 1, at United Hospital in St. Paul, Minn., following a short illness.

She was born Jan. 30, 1926 in Mitchell, Neb., the daughter of Henry and Anna (Boeke) Drucker. As a young child in 1927, she moved to Wheatland with her parents, where she was reared and educated in the Wheatland area, graduating from Wheatland High School in 1943.

Following graduation, she worked in Washington, D.C., Los Angeles, Calif., and Cheyenne, Wyo. She was married to Ronald G. Williams on Jan. 11, 1947 in Cheyenne.

They lived in Wheatland, where she worked for 11 years as a secretary for the Superintendent of Schools, and as the Deputy for the Platte County Clerk.

She retired in the fall of 1986, and moved to St. Paul, Minn., in April, 1990, residing there until the time of her death.

She was a member of the United Church of Christ and the Wheatland Country Club. She was an avid bridge player, playing with several different bridge clubs.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Jane and John Harens, of Mendota Heights, Minn. She is also survived by a sister, Dorothy Wickam of Wheatland, and two grandchildren, Robert and Elizabeth Harens of Mendota Heights.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Ron, on April 25, 1986, a sister, Marie Johnston, and two brothers, Donald and Harold Drucker.

Serving as pallbearers were Ron Davis, Devin Davis, Gary Wickam, Alan Wickam, Larry Johnston, Jim Bohl and Vernon Short.

A memorial to the United Church of Christ would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
