

Betty Jean Wilson

6-3-1992

Graveside services for Betty Jean Wilson, 52, were held Friday, June 5, 1992, at 1 p.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, with Pastor Randy Raver of Assembly of God Church officiating.

Mrs. Wilson died following a short illness Wednesday, June 3, 1992, at the Wyoming Medical Center in Casper.

She was born April 23, 1940, in Joplin, Mo., the daughter of Charles and Margie (Poe) Jester. She came to Wyoming with her family at the age of six.

She moved to Wheatland in 1955, and was reared and educated in Wheatland. She married Jack Wilson Sept. 16, 1957, in Wheatland.

She was a member of Laramie Dells, Women of the Moose, WTK, Memorial Baptist Church, was a co-owner of LinBe's Store, a Bernina Sewing Machine dealer, and was bookkeeper for Wilson Repair, a family-owned business.

Betty was an avid sewer, enjoyed fishing, bridge and gin rummy card playing, reading and gardening.

She was a great cook and cared greatly for her grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, Jack, of Wheatland, her parents, Margie and Bob Porter of Wheatland, and three children, Kelly Wilson and Kirby Wilson, both of Wheatland, and Jonah Parsons of Laramie. A sister, Phyllis Lee-Hopkins of Longmont, Colo., four half-brothers, Garry Jester of Augusta, Kans., George Jester of Warner Robins, Ga., Laurence Jester of Washburn, Mo., and Terry Jester of Wichita, Kans., and three grandchildren, Tiffany Wilson, Kolby Wilson, and Kurtis Wilson, all of Wheatland, also remain.

A memorial to the Laramie Dells would be equally appreciated by the family. The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
