

Horace Cleveland Wilson, pioneer resident of this area, succumbed at the age of 76 in the Platte County Memorial Hospital on Oct. 19, 1965 following a brief illness. A retired rancher, Mr. Wilson had resided in the Wheatland area since the age of five. He was born in Morganton, N. C. on June 10, 1889 and was a member of the Methodist church.

Services were conducted by Rev. Henry Hartberg at the Methodist church on Friday, Oct. 22 at 2:00 p.m. with interment in the Wheatland cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Phil Rietz, John Wilkinson, William Wilkinson, George Mitchell, James Irvine Jr. and George Wain.

Survivors are his wife Nettie E.; three sons, James, Harold and Donald all of Wheatland; a daughter, Mrs. Lee (Florence) Montgomery and brothers Robert, Sam, Dolph and Stanley all of Wheatland; a brother David of Pinedale and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Rietz of Mauee, Ohio. One granddaugh-