

Mary Agnes Wilson

Services for Mary Agnes Wilson, 90, were held Monday, December 21, at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, Wyo., with Andy Gudahl, Minister, officiating.

Mrs. Wilson died Thursday, December 17, 1998, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

Mary was born May 29, 1908, in Laverne, Okla., the daughter of Thomas and Iva (Grinstead) Williams. She moved to Wheatland with her family as a teenager and graduated from Wheatland High School. Mary married Frederick Daulton "Fred" Wilson on August 2, 1928 in Douglas, Wyo. They lived and farmed in the Slater Flats and Wheatland areas. She was a member of the Slater Women's Club and First Christian Church. Mary was an avid bowler, golfer and bridge player. She enjoyed sporting events, flower gardening and was a "wonderful" cook.

She is survived by her daughter, Wynona "Corky" Artery and husband, Kohn of Wheatland; half-sister, Barbara Anderson of Fort Collins, Colo.; three grandchildren, David Artery, Dan Artery and Linda Gebhart all of Wheatland; seven great grandsons; three great-grand children; three great-great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Fred on August 30, 1992; two sisters; and three brothers.

Serving as pallbearers were her great grandsons, Brad Artery, Jeran Artery, Brian Artery, Damon Artery, Darren Gebhart and Jason Gebhart. Honorary pallbearers will be all of her many friends.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
