

WINDOM, FRANK
September 12, 1877-June 17, 1966

An extended illness claimed the life of Frank Windom, a Wheatland resident since 1903, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital on June 17, 1966. He was born in Springfield, Ohio, Sept. 12, 1877 and resided in Iowa prior to moving to Wheatland. A retired contractor, he was a member of the Methodist church. He and Mrs. Windom also operated a floral shop in Wheatland for several years, and during their long time of residence, won the respect and admiration of all who knew them.

Mr. Windom is survived by his wife, Cora Belle, and son, Donald E., both of Wheatland, son, Dale of Lusk, and daughter, Mrs. Mildred Bagley of Soldatna, Alaska, nine grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Rev. Henry Hartberg officiated at the last rites in the Methodist church on June 20 at 10:30 a.m. Interment was in the local cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Harry Dearing, John Nye, Eldon Johnston, Sam White, Lester Cobb and Rupert Potter.
