Graveside services for Jay Dale Weber, 64, will be held at 2 p.m., Saturday, April 10 at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland with Pastor Chris Furl of the Memorial Baptist Church officiating.

On Saturday, Aug. 22, 2020, Jay Dale Weber, loving husband, father, son, brother, uncle, nephew, and grandfather passed away at his home in rural Pasco, Wash.

Jay was born in Torrington on Tuesday, Nov. 29, 1955 to Wayne Weber and Evelyn (Schroeder) Phifer. He grew up on a 1100-acre farm and lived in Wheatland during his early years. Jay then moved to Pasco, in his thirties, where he resided near his mother and stepfather, Zack Phifer. He married Joanne Crawford on June 13, 2000 and they have one son, Chadwick Weber. His daughter, Melissa Bauer from a previous marriage resides in Prairieville, La. and has two grandchildren Bailey and Buddy Bauer.

He attended the University of Wyoming and Columbia Basin College where he earned his welding certification. He worked various agriculture, metal fabrication, and landscaping jobs throughout his life then retired.

Jay will be remembered for his kind and compassion spirit, who was ready to give a helping hand to his family and friends. He had an artist eye with a hand for painting, sculpting, and creating art. He was an outdoorsman who enjoyed camping and fishing. His rural farming background transitioned into caring for his own small orchard of fruit and nut trees on his own acreage.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Vera and Albert Weber; maternal grandparents, Betty and Henry Schroeder; father, Wayne Weber; and step-father, Zack Phifer.

He is survived by his wife, Joanne Weber of Pasco; son, Chadwick Weber of Laramie; daughter, Melissa Bauer of Prairieville, La.; grandchildren, Buddy Bauer of Bryan, Texas and Bailey Bauer of Prairieville, La.; mother, Evelyn Phifer of Pasco; sister, Beth (Mark) Darby of Thornton, Colo.; brother, Kyle (Sue) Weber of San Luis Obispo, Calif.; sister, Joni Darby of Sandwich, Ill.; step-brothers, Bard (Kelli) Phifer of Wheatland and Reid Phifer of Jackson; an aunt, uncle, and several nieces, a nephew, and cousins.

Memorials may be directed to the family.

The Gorman Funeral Homes - Platte Chapel of Wheatland are in charge of the arrangements.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.gormanfh.com.
